

COLORED A DUCK AND FED A CHILD.

(FIRST NAME, AGE)

QUACKY'S CLUB

Dear Parents or Guardians:

As you know, childhood hunger is a reality and it exists in our own neighborhoods. Nearly 100,000 children living in the twenty counties served by the Freestore Foodbank are food insecure, meaning they aren't always sure where they will get their next meal. Every dollar donated to the Freestore Foodbank helps to provide three meals to children and families in need within our Tri-State area. We know that children receiving a proper diet perform better on tests and are on time and in attendance at school more frequently. We can all make a difference in the fight against childhood hunger within the Cincinnati community ... even the youngest amongst us.

We'd like to introduce you to Quacky's Club, an opportunity for your child to be part of the fight against childhood hunger. This annual program, presented by TriHealth, gives the next generation in our community an opportunity to become involved and to make a difference in the fight against childhood hunger.

To join, simply help your child color one of our little rubber ducks attached (additional copies are available at all TriHealth locations or on line at QuackysClub.org). When you complete and submit the special Quacky's Club enrollment form with the duck colored by your child, they will be entered into Quacky's Club and receive a letter from Quacky as well as a button for them to wear around town. Their artwork could also be among the artwork displayed on social media by Freestore Foodbank and TriHealth and could possibly be shown on Local 12 news by Bob Herzog. By mailing in one $5.00 duck purchase with your child's colored duck, your child will be able to provide 15 meals for children and families in the Tri-State area who are struggling with hunger. Your child's duck will join the rest of the 200,000 ducks that will swim in the Ohio River near the Serpentine Wall on September 3 at 3 pm for the 23rd Annual Rubber Duck Regatta. Following the Rubber Duck Regatta, TriHealth will make a donation to the Freestore Foodbank on behalf of children such as your own, who participated in Quacky's Club. Finally, your child will continue to receive updates from Quacky during the coming year.

Thank you for joining us in Quacky's Club, and for teaching your child that together, all of us can Feed A Child.
